

Wednesday, September 8th - 7:30 PM
St. Francis of Assisi, in the Fr. McGivney room

“These Men They Call Knights”

You see Knights of Columbus Brothers “everywhere” here at St Francis of Assisi. (IE : Pastors, Deacons, Ushers, EM'S, Lectors, Choir members, Pancake breakfast workers, Fish Fry Guys, Tornado Hockey Outings, Roughrider Baseball Outings, Selling Passbooks &/or Mother's Day Raffle Tickets, Monte Carlo Night Workers, etc, etc...)

Then you wonder to yourself --- Who are these guys they call Knights???? What do they do???? What's their story???? How do “I” become one????

Catholic men (age 18 and over) of the St Francis of Assisi Community are invited to attend a “guys' night out” to learn about the Knights of Columbus and why you should consider joining our ranks.

This will give you an opportunity to find out the “WHO”, “WHAT” & “WHERE” details of the Knights. You will also be able meet with current Knights and ask them about their Knights' experiences.
